

DUNCAN MACRAE Jr. HONORS THESIS GRANT

The Duncan MacRae Jr. Honors Thesis Grant supports public policy majors working on independent honor thesis research under the supervision of public policy faculty member at UNC-Chapel Hill.

Eligibility

- Current public policy honors thesis students enrolled in PLCY 691H or 692H.

Application Process

All eligible students should FIRST apply for Honors Carolina research grants, which are available to help offset the cost of conducting a Senior Honors Thesis. The grants, up to $500, can cover the cost of equipment, supplies, software, publications, transportation, and other expenses. Students must apply through the Director of Undergraduate Studies, Public Policy. See <http://honorscarolina.unc.edu/research/senior-honors-thesis/>.

Applicants can use the same Honors Thesis Research Award application form (including a letter of support from a thesis advisor) for review by the Public Policy Undergraduate Affairs Committee. In addition, applicants should submit the following items:

- A list of any other funding you have applied for or received to support your Senior Honors Thesis. Please note that if you receive an Honors Thesis Research Award or other funding, you must send an updated funding list to the Student Services Officer.
- A copy of your resume.
- A copy of your official UNC transcript.

Applications are due to the Student Services Officer by the departmental Honors Thesis Research Award deadline.

Anticipated Number and Amount of Awards

Contingent on availability of endowment funds, a maximum of four awards of $500 each will support public policy honors thesis applicants through the Duncan MacRae Jr. Public Policy Fund.

Selection Process

The Undergraduate Affairs Committee will review applications and recommend recipient(s) to the Chair of the UNC Public Policy.

Reporting Requirements

Successful applicants should acknowledge support from the Duncan MacRae Jr. Public Policy Fund in their honor thesis acknowledgements.
