

DUNCAN MACRAE JR. PUBLIC POLICY MENTORED RESEARCH ASSISTANT

Purpose

The Duncan MacCrae Jr. Mentored Research Assistant Grant aims to promote opportunities for undergraduates to engage in mentored research with public policy faculty.

Eligibility

- Currently enrolled undergraduate students in good academic standing who are declared public policy majors.
- All faculty in Public Policy seeking to provide mentored research assistant opportunities to undergraduate students

Application Process

Public Policy faculty may nominate a student for this award to the Undergraduate Affairs Committee.

Faculty mentors will need to submit a brief statement (no more than 250 words) endorsing the student applying for the research assistantship and describing the work they will be performing.

Students should submit a letter of interest, resume, and unofficial transcript to Meredith Albright, merealb@unc.edu.

All application materials should be submitted to Meredith Albright (merealb@unc.edu) by October 13, 2023. The Undergraduate Studies Committee will make determinations of award winners.

Requirements

Faculty and students recipients of this award should acknowledge support from the Duncan MacRae Jr. Public Policy Fund in any publications or conference presentations resulting from the award.

Students receiving this award are encouraged to author or co-author a research paper with their faculty mentor and to participate/present in UNC's Annual Undergraduate Celebration of Research.
